Wheat harvest began in many fields in this county Tuesday, June 13, which is the earliest in this section since June 11, 1880—25 years ago. There is not only a large average of wheat in Chariton county this year, but the quality is also excellent, and if the crop can be saved in good condition it will put thousands of dollars into the pockets of our farmers.

A. E. Ramsey spent a part of Tuesday in Keytesville with his friend, A. F. Tooley. Mr. Ramsey is a Texan by birth, and is a very pleasant gentleman. He is to be secretary of the new Bank and Trust Co. at Purcell, I. T., of which Mr. Tooley is cashier. These two gentlemen had been to St. Louis to buy a safe, but will not purchase their furniture until their new banking building is completed.

During the thunder-storm Friday afternoon lightning struck and completely demolished a large maple tree in Mrs. Janie Quick's yard, seven miles northwest of Keytesville. The storm was accompanied by more or less wind and did more or less damage in the same neighborhood to shade and fruit trees. Mr. Knox had the roof torn from his hoghouse and a box blown against a beegum, which caused great excitement among the bees, and Mr. Knox had a hot time of it getting the honey-makers quieted down again.

John Dorrance has leased his 1,000-acre ranch five miles northwest of this place, and sold his hogs and cattle to Thos. Archibald and Smith Sellers of Kansas City. The lease is for one year. Mrs. Dorrance and son, Charles, will spend the summer with her parents in Kansas City. They and Mr. Dorrance are contemplating a trip to Europe within a few months.

Dr. M. W. Taylor of Keytesville received an Algerian flat-tailed sheep Wednesday morning, which was sent to him as a present from a friend in St. Louis, and to whom it was given by Carl Hagenbeck, proprietor of Hagenbeck's animal show, which was one of the chief attractions on the pike at the World's fair in St. Louis. Mr. Hagenbeck bought two of these flat-tailed sheep in Algeria at a cost of $250, and when one of them died he gave the other away and the recipient, having no place to keep it, presented her sheepship to Dr. Taylor. She will weigh about 200 pounds, is a dark gray in color and has a black head and ears, white feet and a tail almost as wide as her back. The wool is similar to that of other sheep, but is very long and fine. Dr. Taylor will probably use the animal to butt his patients into insensibility just before he extracts their teeth.

For Sale.

John Dorrance of five miles northwest of Keytesville was called to Chicago Thursday night of last week by the serious illness of his brother, Charles, of Wilksbarre, Pa., but found him much better upon reaching his bedside, and he will soon make John a visit.

If the people of Chariton county do their duty in endorsing the right and condemning the wrong, as they should do, the COURIER will have a circulation of over 3,000 by the 1st of January. It is simply a question between right and wrong. To which will you lend your financial and moral support?

J. T. Minnick of Browning, and W. B. Minnick and wife of DeWitt spent Sunday in Keytesville with their brother, Edward Minnick, who has charge of the mechanical department of J. P. Tippet's blacksmith-shop. There are four of the Minnick brothers who are knights of the anvil.

Jesse Drew was fined $2.50 and costs in Judge J. R. Mason's court at Salisbury Tuesday for assaulting his brother-in-law, Louis Huss, of near Salisbury during a dance and lager beer soiree at Huss' house a few nights previous. Drew landed on Huss with a brickbat, which he hurled at him through a window.

Cash is always acceptable in a printshop, but its jingle is much sweeter when accompanied by a nice compliment. B. J. Patrick, who made his home six miles north of Keytesville for many years, but who now resides in Moberly, has our thanks for both cash and a compliment. In writing to "ye editor" to renew his subscription to the COURIER Mr. Patrick says: "Enclosed you will find $1 for which you will please extend my time for the best paper published in Chariton county. The COURIER is always a welcome visitor at our home."
